

Emergency Landing

Summary:

The writer was going to Malaga. He was a nervous passenger but a confident drinker. He was told by air hostess that bar service was not available. The captain's voice came that there was some technical problem. So, the aeroplane was going back to Gatwick. Stewardesses were searching the compartments. So, he thought that there is a bomb but he was not scared. A girl sitting with her and the passengers tried to be in-front of the door. The passenger rushed out of the plane but he was searching his wallet. Then he rushed out of the plane. He saw a man on the grass, who was clutching his heart; a girl was also there whose ankle was taking passengers across the field to the terminal. Some people were scared while others were saying "This is nothing" and he thought it was unusual not fearful. Next morning replacement aircraft was available. He felt like a returning hero was quite confused and scared and he offered a bottle to her but bottle from his hand and placed it in her yellow bag. We are landing at Dinard, landing style was not proper. Precautions were given to passengers. He felt relief that his wife and eight month old child were not with him. He placed his wallet on his lap. The plane landed like a bomb and skimmer stone and he lost his wallet. The door of the plane was being opened, who came without a scratch but his wife suggested that he was suffering from a delayed shock. He has diagnosed a brain tumor. At Dinard he ate food in restaurant without paying any penny because his wallet was lost in emergency landing. No doubt, from the field of dinard, he emerged with another new experience. He felt

ACTIVITY 13.1:

scratch

1: What does this paragraph tell you about a writer as a person?

Ans: This paragraph tells us about the writer as a person that he seems in a Holiday mood and he is going to celebrate his vacations. He does not look a good and responsible man because he was a confident drinker in his routine.

2: Which of the following words best describes the tone of the

2: Which of the following words best describes the tone of the paragraph? Explain your choice.

a) Cheerful

b) Nervous

c) Flippant

d) Confident

e) Drunk/intoxicated

Ans: The word drunk/intoxicated describes the tone of paragraph, because all feeling of nervous and confident can be summarized in one word intoxicated.

3: The writer says he was "in holiday mood". What is his intention?

Ans: By the term the writer was "in holiday mood" means that his intention was just to celebrate his vacations according to his will. He had a wish to do something new and sensational and wanted to enjoy his life.

4: How does the phrase "something was up" suit the tone of the paragraph?

Ans: The writer was a nervous passenger but a confident drinker and was sitting in the aero plane, but as he was drunk so he was not in conscious state and he just felt that "something was up". Something was up means that something is about to happen.

ACTIVITY 13.3:

1: With the reference to the paragraph 2 explain

a) How Amis felt:

Ans: Amis became anxious when a flustered blonde stewardess told him that the bar service had been suspended. Answering his very anxious inquiries she told him that the bar service would soon resumed. By this he was in trembling state that Captain's address about emergency landing made him more confused and anxious.

b) How stewardess felt:

Ans: In the reference of paragraph 2 a flustered blonde stewardess looked in a relax and responsible condition and explaining condition in a very relax and calm mood.

2: With reference to paragraph 3. show how Amis conveyed his attitude to the bomb threat?

Ans: Martin Amis conveyed his attitude toward the bomb threat in such a way that, he saw the changed place of the Sun, there the aero plane was flying over the north France. He also saw that stewardess was searching the apartments. So, he thought that there was a bomb threat. But he was not fearful and scared from bomb.

3: From reference to the paragraph 4 we get the first hint describe Amis attitude to the girl next to him, and explain reason for this?

Ans: The girl who was sitting with Amis was disturbed and scared from bomb threat, but Amis was still relaxed. He took the second half of his Villium 5 and offered a bottle of whisky to her. She refused to take it. The stewardess took the bottle from his hands and put it in her yellow bag.

4: At the end of the paragraph 4 we get the first hint that

Ans: Due to emergency landing of aero plane Amis was very nervous and he underestimates the danger. He used the taunt

Ans: Due to emergency landing of aero plane Amis was very nervous and he underestimates the danger. He used the taunt language. He said "We spread down on Dinard, not in the cruising, wallowing style that usually aero plane adopt for landing, but with steep and speedy purpose. He means that the landing style was not proper and he underestimate.

5: What effect does paragraph 5 have on the reader? Support your view with evidence from the paragraph?

Ans: This has an emotional effect on the reader. Because an

5: What effect does paragraph 5 have on the reader? Support your view with evidence from the paragraph?

Ans: This has an emotional effect on the reader. Because an alarming state was occurred for the passengers and they all were on frightened state. Due to chaotic situation an emotional seen was created.

6: Why do you think that Amis thoughts turned to his family?

Ans: Amis was facing a horrible situation and unfavorable circumstances which were situated by the emergency landing seen was created.

✓ 6: Why do you think that Amis thoughts turned to his family?

Ans: Amis was facing a horrible situation and unfavorable circumstances which were situated by the emergency landing of an aero plane. He was very thankful that his wife and his eight month old child were not with him in this aero plane. Because, he was facing a very critical situation.

7: Explain what effect is created by the choice of words in paragraph 7?

Ans: The 737 landed like a skimmed stone, like a bomb itself.

Because, he was facing a very critical situation.

7: Explain what effect is created by the choice of words in paragraph 7?

Ans: The 737 landed like a skimmed stone, like a bomb itself, like a dam buster. The reverse thrust came on with such preternatural power that whole aircraft were about to start toppling end.

8: Explain why Amis begin paragraph 8 with "My paramount concern at this point was, of course, to find my wallet". What does this tells us about the state of mind?

Ans: Amis said that "My paramount concern at this point was, of course, to find my wallet" because he had some important things in his wallet which he had placed in his lap but with a jerk he dropped it in his aero plane.

✓ 9: Explain the apparent difference between Amis and the other passengers. Set some words and phrases which help to create this contrast?

Ans: Martin Amis had settled his journey just to celebrate his Ans: Martin Amis had settled his journey just to celebrate his vacations but he had to face the chaotic situation of an emergency landing but he controlled over the situation. While the other passengers were very nervous and frightened on hearing that plane in emergency landing.

✓ 10: Describe Amis state of mind at Dinard and on returning home to bed?

Ans: After facing a lot of problems, horrible situation of emergency landing now Amis was in his home with his wife and child at Dinard. He was enjoying a good and fear free dinner.

the other passengers were very nervous and frightened on hearing that plane in emergency landing.

10: Describe Amis state of mind at Dinard and on returning home to bed?

Ans: After facing a lot of problems, horrible situation of emergency landing now Amis was in his home with his wife and child at Dinard. He was enjoying a good and fear free dinner. After going on the bed he was feeling himself a hero who came back to home through a testing time without any scratch but a bit disturbed mentally.

11: The passage changes dramatically with the words, "And I was wrong". Explain in your words why he was wrong?

Ans: Amis thought that he was as brave as lord so, he can face any chaotic situation easily. But he was wrong. There were fears in his mind which were diagnosed later in the form of brain tumor.

12: Finally in your view was Amis frightened during his experience or not?

Ans: First he was fearless, he was completely relaxed. He was

6
12: Finally in your view was Amis frightened during his experience or not?

Ans: First he was fearless, he was completely relaxed. He was drinking whisky. But at the end when he realized the danger, he was frightened. He was worried about the family. He himself a hero who came back home through a testing time without a scratch. But later he realized the danger later which was diagnosed a brain tumor.

ACTIVITY 12.4:

The Cultural Impact of Recorded Music

Summary: The real significance of phonograph was that it has changed the way to listen the music. In past music was unique but now it has heard privately and it became more cheapened. Now music is in much wider range because it is available anywhere, anytime. Some people believe that the duplication of best music would result in social uplift. Some people in United States continued to buy popular music of the kind that reformers considered uplifting. Record manufactures such as Victor, Columbia and Edison's companies are responding by advertising good and effecting a wide variety of it in catalogue.

1

manufactures such as 'Victor, Columbia and Edison's companies are responding by advertising good and effecting a wide variety of it in catalogue.

Some companies such as Victor set up departments to promote music in colleges and schools.

Historians have contributed that phonograph has regarded the value of music.

2

by noted that "good" music is not that available to millions of people. Phonograph provided a link to urbane cultural good and bad (serious) music. People still prefer popular music and record companies did nothing to discourage sale of popular music.

ACTIVITY 14.3:

Give the meaning of each of the following expression as it is used in a passage.

- 1) Transformed : Changed
- 2) Unique : Distinct
- 3) Cheapened : Low cost
- 4) Theoretically: In true sense
- 5) Mass duplication : Copied material at large scale

4) Theoretically: In true sense

5) Mass duplication : Copied material at large scale

6) Social uplift : Social success

7) Reform movement : Resolutely movements

8) High brow : Intellectual

ACTIVITY 14.4:

ACTIVITY 14.4:

1: What is the principle reason for people being more honest in email than phone?

Ans: People being more honest in email than on phones, because email is in recorded form and it cannot be removed, it comes back to haunt you.

2: In your words, explain how Hancock's research was carried out?

out.

Ans: Jeff Hancock made a research on 30 students of university to keep a communication diary for a week. In it they noted the number of conversation or email exchange they had listen more than 10 minutes and confess to how many lies they told.

3: Why were psychologist are surprised by Hancock's findings?

Ans: Psychologist was surprised because some people believe that email is the biggest liar, reasoning that because deception makes people uncomfortable. The detachment of emailing would make it easier.

4: Why people are more likely to lie in "real time"?

Ans: People are more likely to lie in real time because our awareness is so spontaneous and instant, so we answer without thinking.

5: How much Hancock's research be used?

Ans: Hancock's research can be used by the companies to work out for their employees to communicate. For instance

Ans: Hancock's research can be used by the companies to work out for their employees to communicate. For instance, phones might be the best medium for sales.)

ACTIVITY 14.5:

Give the meaning of each of the following expression as it is used in the article.

1) Conveying : To inform

2) Haunt: Recall something

3) Whooping: Huge/Massive scale

4) Deception : Deceive/Cheat

5) Detachment : Separate

6) Real time : Present time

7) Hold....to account: Recount or analysis again

8) Stretch the truth : To speak the pronounce truth